

Declaration of Number of Words for Masters by Research Dissertation

This form should be signed by the candidate and the candidate's supervisor and submitted to doctoralschool@royalholloway.ac.uk together with the electronic copy of the dissertation.

The Royal Holloway Research Degree Regulations for the Degrees of Masters by Research state that the dissertation will be a maximum of 40,000 words including references, footnotes and endnotes, but excluding the bibliography and appendices, etc. In many cases, however, your department will recommend a lower word count as appropriate to your discipline.

Candidate's name: Thomas Bass

Dissertation title: Comparative Analysis of Simulations and Experimental Outcomes: Slow Extraction Driven by RF Transverse Excitation at the CERN Proton Synchrotron

I confirm that the word length of:

1. the dissertation including footnotes is 11,505
2. the bibliography is 1,336
and, if applicable,
3. the appendices are 0

Candidate's signature:

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Bass", with a horizontal line underneath.

Date: 11 September 2023

Supervisor's signature:

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "S. Gibson", written in a cursive style.

Date: 31 August 2023

Please submit to doctoralschool@royalholloway.ac.uk at the same time as your dissertation.